

Title IX prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs and activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Students, faculty or staff members, or other members of the Woodbury University community who feel that the University has discriminated against them on the basis of sex in its programs or activities may bring concerns to the attention of the University's Title IX Coordinators for the purpose of obtaining a prompt and equitable resolution.

The Dean of Students and the Executive Director for Human Resources serves as the University's Title IX Coordinators and are responsible for monitoring University practices and procedures to ensure compliance with our policies and federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including Title IX. Inquiries regarding these matters should be directed to:

Dr. Anne Ehrlich
Dean of Students
Whitten Student Center 132B
(818) 252-5252

Or

Rachelle Prince
Executive Director of Human Resources
