Writing Placement & Sequence of Courses

Effective starting with the incoming class of Fall 2020

Starting with the incoming class of Fall 2020, Woodbury University will no longer require the Writing Placement Exam.

To complete your degree*, you must successfully pass or transfer in credits for the following Writing courses:

1. WRIT 1XX, First-Year Academic Writing
   a. If you have successfully passed a first-year composition course with a C or better, submit your transcript so the Office of the Registrar can formally evaluate it.
   b. If you have successfully passed either the AP Language and Composition or the AP Literature exam with a 3 or better, submit your AP scores.

2. WRIT 3XX, Advanced Academic Writing
   a. If you have successfully passed a college level, upper division academic writing course with a C or better, submit your transcript so the Office of the Registrar can formally evaluate it.

* Professional Writing students will take more Writing courses.
